

BOOKSTORE QUERY OPENED BY PREXY HAYNES THURSDAY

Yearly Profit, Cost Of Books, Will Be Checked By Group COMMITTEE OF 5

A committee to investigate the University book store was selected Thursday, and will turn in a report to President Rowland Haynes in the near future.

The committee includes Bursar L. D. Crenshaw, Dr. Lyman Harris, Josephine Carroll, and John Moucka. These four will select a chairman and a fifth member at their first meeting.

In an informal letter to the committee President Haynes stated that the purpose of the investigation is to study the present book store, investigate its revenue, and to suggest changes which could be made which would aid the student body.

President Haynes stated that he merely wanted information and would ask the committee to present a report. Conditions which were rumored to exist were brought to the attention of the President Tuesday morning by a representative of The Gateway.

"The book store is operated for the benefit of the students," said Bursar Crenshaw, "and any suggestions made will be appreciated. The record books are open to inspection at any time, and we would welcome such an investigation. If prices can be lowered

Macy Baum Wins Oratory Contest

MACY BAUM

Macy Baum, Omaha University student and Gateway staff member, won the regional A. Z. A. oratory title at the three-day tournament held in Omaha last week. Baum teamed with Ernest Priesman to win the debate championship. They will represent the Iowa-Nebraska region in these events at the district A. Z. A. meet to be held in Duluth, Minn., March 19, 20, 21 and 22.

Council Assumes Power To Select Ma-ie Committee

Changes, which enable the Council to select the committees for Ma-ie Day and Homecoming Day, were made by the Student Council in the by-laws of their constitution at a meeting held Thursday noon.

Formerly the chairman and members of the gala days at the University were elected by the student body at large.

A student forum will be held in Jacobs' Hall soon, to give the students an opportunity to express themselves for or against the new amendments.

Friday morning from 10:30 to 12:30 o'clock an election will be held in the Men's Faculty Building. Seniors will select one woman to replace Sue Kemper, who graduated, on the Council. Candidates are Hortense Geislar and Josephine Carroll.

The changes made to the by-laws of the constitution are:

Section 9—It shall be the duty of the Student Council to appoint the central committee and chairman of Homecoming Day and the central committee and chairman of Ma-ie Day.

Appointments shall be made by the Student Council under the following conditions: (a) The chairman in each case shall preferably be a senior who expects to be a graduate in the current school year. (b) The committee shall be composed of one representative from each of the four classes and the chairman.

Section 10, Regulation G.—Only senior women who expect to be graduated in the current school year shall be considered as candidates for the honor of Homecoming Day or Ma-ie Day Princess.

Sigma Tau Delta Frat Hears Talk

Dr. A. Dayle Wallace, English instructor, addressed members of the Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, at a meeting held at the Paxton Hotel, Thursday evening, February 13. The topic of his address was "Horace Walpole."

Dr. Wallace spoke of the letters which Walpole has written and said he is the greatest English letter writer known.

"Walpole's letters give us the most interesting and fullest accounts of English society from 1740 to 1795," he said. "His letters have a good deal of interest not only for students but also for the general public."

Sigma Tau Delta will hold its regular business meeting at the Fontenelle hotel.

DR. DIETZ TO SPEAK

Dr. Nicholas Dietz, professor of Chemistry at Creighton University, addressed members of the Chemistry Club at a meeting held in the Science building this morning at 10 a. m. His topic was "Heavy Hydrogen and Heavy Water."

QUARTETTE ON RADIO

The Alpha Sigma Lambda quartet has been permanently placed on the Saturday evening commercial program sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. over radio station KOIL. This program is to be heard over this station at 6:15 every Saturday night.

CONSIDER JOHNNY BAKER AS MENTOR FOR IOWA COLLEGE

Makes No Comment On the Possibility Of His Appointment

WAS GRID STAR

Johnny Baker, head basketball coach and line coach for the Omaha University eleven, is being considered for the job as head football mentor at Grinnell college, according to The Omaha Bee-News.

Lester L. Watt, who has been the coach at Grinnell for the past nine years, resigned last Saturday.

and Baker is one of the possible coaches placed before the athletic board.

Johnny Baker was an All-American guard from the University of Southern California in 1931, and is commonly called the man who beat Notre Dame with a last minute field goal that year.

Gamma Pi Sigma Will Hold Eighth Annual Banquet

The Gamma Pi Sigma, honorary Chemistry Fraternity, will hold their eighth annual banquet Saturday, February 22, at the Medical Arts Tea Room.

Dr. Reuben G. Gustavson, professor of chemistry at the University of Denver, will give an illustrated lecture on his researches in connection with the subject, "Some Recent Studies in Connection With Sex Hormones." Dr. Gustavson has been obtained through the courtesy of the Noon Day Club of Omaha.

Decorations for the centerpiece will be a picture of George Washington surrounded by American flags. Large flags and red candles will be other decorations.

Dean Edgar A. Holt of the College of Arts and Sciences will be guest of honor. He will give a short dinner speech.

Annual Phi Sig Dance Tonight

A Sweetheart Swing, the first formal dance of 1936, will be given by members of the Phi Sigma Phi fraternity this evening at the Chermot ballroom.

Franklin Vincent and his "Madhatters" will provide music for the dance.

Sponsors and guests will be Dean Edgar A. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Helmstader, Miss Ruth Diamond, and Dr. Lyman Harris.

Two hundred bids have been issued for the dance.

Holland Chosen New President Of Chem Frat

William Holland, '38, was elected president of the Gamma Pi Sigma, honorary chemistry fraternity, at a meeting held Friday, January 31, in the Science Building. Paul Stageman, '38, was chosen secretary.

The different rankings of the members are based on the following: Four credit hours in chemistry to be a second associate member; eight credit hours for first associate membership; and twelve hours for active membership; twenty-four credit hours to be an active member with honors.

Those who have won additional credits from first semester work are: Erma Grace Reilly, Jerry Remar, William Holland, Frank Goos, and Vance Senter.

The members entering from honors won the first semester are: Norma Ellingwood, Ethel Adler, Parley Rogers, Harold Thomson, Clitus Olson, Robert Mason, Leonard Kurtz, Ray King, Ellis Johanson, Harold Janoff, James Britton, John Zitnik, Prentice Wendland, Irvin Vaughn, Ralph Kline, and Herbert Hildebrand.

Cards Will Play At Cedar Rapids

The Omaha University basketball team leaves today for Cedar Falls, Ia., where they play the Iowa-Teachers-Saturday night.

The Cardinals won twice over the Teachers last year, but the Iowans are favored now because of a higher ranking in the North Central Conference.

The game is a sort of "homecoming" for Johnny Baker, Omaha coach, and is arousing much interest at Cedar Rapids. Johnny was head football tutor for two years at Iowa Teachers College before coming to Omaha.

Ineligibility of Clarence "Kelly" Bolte will cause Baker to shuffle the Omaha lineup again. Either Earl Strohbel, star of the North Dakota State game, or Bill Nelson will get the call for Bolte's job.

The Teachers come here next Saturday for a return game on the Benson high court.

Diamond Divides Orchesis Class

Orchesis class has grown so large that it is to be divided into two distinct groups. The Concert Group will meet at 5 p. m. on Thursdays. Miss Diamond's Concert Group is made up of the following girls: Janet Graetz, Elaine Coulter, Frances Dilger, Maxine Marrs, Frances Savage, Mrs. Harriet Benson, Jane Cook, Anne Raymond, Eloise Johnson, and Helen Saltars.

The regular Orchesis class will meet at 6 p. m. on Thursdays. The following girls are in this group: Mary Maxwell, Helen Holden, June Jones, Betty Young, Anita Thomason, Marjorie Strand, Betty Lou Stringer, Betty Arnold, and Lola Medlock.

The intra-mural basketball tournament started off with a bang last Monday with the Thetas nipping the Indians, a barb team, 20 to 16. The Thetas had the edge, for their outfit plays in a church league each week and they work together well. Fletcher's Indians put up a good show, keeping even with the Greek five until the last two minutes, when Ryan and Belau clinched the contest with a volley of baskets. Haitian Speaks To French Club

Rev. Victor E. Holly, a native of Haiti, addressed the French Club last Wednesday, February 12, at 4 p. m. He spoke on the history of the island and answered questions concerning the contemporary life there.

Since French is Rev. Holly's native tongue, the address and the discussion following was conducted in French for the most part. Illustrating postal cards of this island paradise threatened to make Haitian immigrants of some of the club members.

Pan-Hel Council To Choose Pins

The Pan-Hellenic Council will select pins to designate membership in the Council, it was decided at a meeting held Thursday noon, February 13. A committee headed by Don Ryan reported they had obtained estimated prices and designs for the pins.

The athletic committee reported the intra-mural basketball games are under way and the schedule for the games has been drawn up.

HAYNES POSTPONES TRIP

President Rowland Haynes' scheduled trip to Cleveland, Ohio, which was postponed, will probably be completed this week-end.

President Haynes left Omaha last Monday night, but returned home after a discussion with North Central conference officials in Chicago Tuesday.

THE BOOKSTORE INVESTIGATION

An investigation of the University book store should clear up the suspicions which have rankled many of the students who have had dealings with it, and who feel that there could be a change for the better.

There seem to be two definite objectives which the committee should strive to reach. The first, and most important, is to discover why the price of books is so high, and why the surplus which is made each year shouldn't be turned back into a fund to lower all prices, instead of being included in the general school fund.

The second objective should be to investigate the type of service rendered to the student body.

Whether there are grounds for the suspicions and rumors, which are current on the campus, is to be seen. Certain it is that many schools have found that a co-operative book store solves all the problems which had troubled them under situations similar to ours.

Bursar Crenshaw would appreciate it if some of the responsibility for the book store, which now rests on his shoulders, was removed. He has stated that if it will not cost the University money he would be glad to see it handled in a different manner.

Let us hope that the query does not last the entire semester and die from lack of effort and interest by the committee members themselves.

The Gateway pledges its wholehearted support to the investigation committee in the hope that the situation will be cleared up once and for always.

COUNCIL TAKES DICTATORY POWERS

Students have been asked to express their opinions on the amendments to the by-laws of the Student Council Constitution in a student forum to be held soon. These amendments have been made by the Student Council on authority residing in that body. This step taken by the Student Council gives them unlimited authority to appoint members to the committees in charge of the two main events of the school year; that is, to the Maie Day and the Homecoming celebration. The Student Council feels that it is acting for the best of the student body in depriving it of the right to elect the committee itself. However, the Council has generously given the student body the right to voice its opinion of these amendments; although it makes no provision for any steps to be taken if the vote is unfavorable to these revisions.

ON THE MAGAZINE RACK

By LLOYD L. LEE

Blind Alleys—Atlantic Monthly, February
(Carl Joachim Friedrich)

Dr. Carl Friedrich's European training has made him particularly sensitive to certain problems which confront American professors. Dr. Friedrich is convinced that American universities do not have l'esprit, which is so typical of Continental universities. There are few real thinkers who have originality, imagination, candor, and lucidity, which is part of l'esprit. The few that do have it, such as Dewey, Beard, Laski, Lewisohn, and Llewellyn, are smothered under administrative control, which so stamps the American college. Then there are so many professors whose highest ambition is to become a dean or a president rather than to excel in thought or writing.

The large universities contain many, many departments of learning—philosophy, psychology, history, government, economics, and so forth and so on. The professors in these departments are not broad enough. Once an economist, always an economist; once a political scientist, always a political scientist. All this is not conducive to the development of real creative and powerful minds, either in teachers or in aspiring students.

"Neither numbers of students nor magnitude of plant can compensate for the lack of really choice spirits. They are rare even under the most favorable conditions, yet they are the most precious possession an institution of learning can harbor."

disturbance in the library. The library is a place to study and to borrow certain books unavailable elsewhere. There are some students in this University who are trying to concentrate on their lessons in that library. Thoughtful college students do not participate in the unnecessary chatter which is so rampant in the library. The librarians realize that there will always be some necessary conversation, but they are also aware that there are more appropriate places for hen-sessions and bull-sessions.

It's In The Cards

By LEO PEAREY

John Kozak has a competitor for the distinction of being the biggest chiseler. There's a girl by the name of Virginia Lowe, who asks for passes to take her boy friend to the games and then yells for the other team, just because the center has two gold teeth.

They tell me that one of the main reasons so many people sit in the south stands at the Central Gym, is because that's where Dr. Harris also sits. All through the game he keeps up a lively one-man cheering section with his snappy wise-cracks and pleading descriptions.

Say gang, there is still one bright young lassie among us who can still blush, and on the slightest provocation, too. The name, Eunice Blatney, and they say that she "kinda" likes athletes, so "youse" guys from Poverty Flats steal some lard from Fouts to slick your hair with and find out if it's true.

S'funny world! Take a little responsibility away from some people and they really make up for lost time. Yet Ellen Hartman says she hasn't had a date since New Year's. Oh yeah!

At a recent meeting of the 'O' Club, (about three months ago) it was decided that in order to get gold footballs for two straight championships, and gold basketballs for the last year's champions, the club would sponsor a dance and an athletic show or carnival, the show to consist of boxing, wrestling, tumbling and so forth. So far nothing has been done. It seems that to stimulate a little interest around here, one must either pass three subjects or take someone's girl friend out. Even the president of the club is too busy to do anything and the committee in charge are still com-mittin'. What a racket!

The other day we were going to mix up a little cornbread to eat with the beans. We didn't have enough plain flour, so we used pancake flour instead. The baking powder was low, so we used a baking soda substitution. Morton's Salt 'poured' too heavily and to top it all off Kulper forgot to mix in the corn-meal. If the landlady hadn't shut off the gas, we could have used the finished product to keep our feet warm in bed, anyhow.

It seems to be quite the custom for the beautiful co-eds at Muni Uni to wear those fancy riding boots. It might save on silk hose, or they might cover up knock-knees, bow-legs or save the weaker sex from this gorgeous weather. Still, I saw Barb Fair with a pair on the other day. Now, I'm wondering.

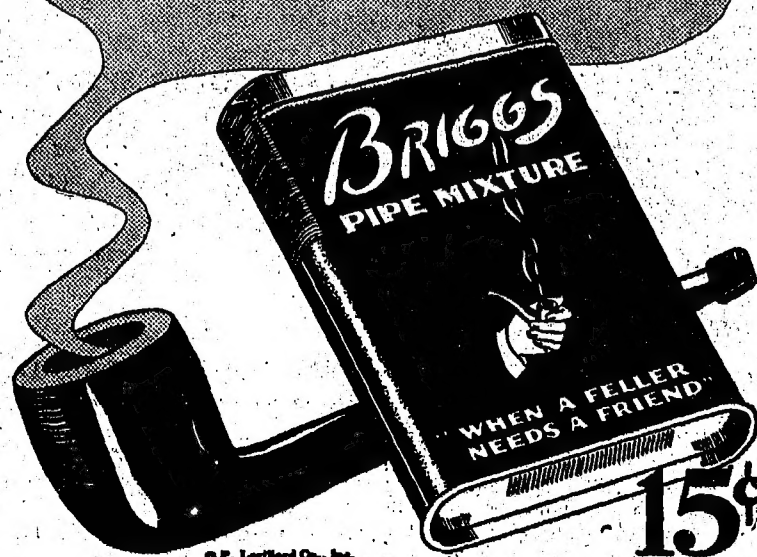

Do you like cucumbers? Oh, but asparagus is so good in apple pie, and besides I don't like green grass when it's snowing. The preceding statements remind one of the daily recordings in the diary of Royce Brown and Charlotte Morse, those two ever-fighting, ever-making up love-birds.

Spring Football Will Soon Start

Spring Practice For 1936 Season Will Start Soon; Added Power Expected.

By GEORGE THREADGILL

While coach Johnny Baker finishes his cage season, Coach Sed Hartman is completing the 1936 football schedule and the laying of plans for Spring practice. Now that the Cards have dropped from the N. I. A. A. league, they are dealing with the North Central conference only, which is tough enough for any ball club. Although Omaha won but one N. C. conference game last season, they will come back with practically the same team and added power. The Cards were very superior in the N. I. A. A., winning every game and were scored upon but once.

When the snow clears away about the first of March, the call of Spring practice will ring in the ears of all the candidates for next Fall's team. Hartman will be greeted with fourteen lettermen and about the same number from the Frosh team. This should make a good sized squad and much can be expected from it.

Hartman plans to have six regulation games for the boys this Spring but most of the time will be devoted in acquiring speed, since football is 90 per cent speedy footwork.

The Cardinals will sadly miss Leo Perry, Loren Gammon, Howard Sorensen, Bill Nelson, Noel King, and Kenneth Turner, all of whom will graduate this coming June. Wilbur Adams, another vet, has dropped from school.

Lettermen returning are: Clifford Anderson, John Donlon, Morris Loder, Fredric Tyler, Royce Brown and Kenneth Slump, backfield men, and Russel Riggins, Melvin Boldenow, Frank Crawford, Robert Flesher, Robert Frink, Harold Johnk, Norman Sorensen and Gerald Gardner, linemen.

Freshmen eligible next fall are: Ed Kersenbrock, Sam Reiman, Steve Harper, Jack Kaaua, Frank LaMantia, Merrit Jensen, Bill Middlekauff, Paul Blunt, George Threadgill, Bob Mason, Ray Keaton, Bill Kulper, Gail Lieber, Charles Wentworth, Carrol Slump and Don Gardner.

Gamma Sigma Omicron sorority will hold a tea—at which the alumnae will be present—at Margaret Rhoads' home Sunday, February 16.

Alpha Sigma Lambda fraternity will hold informal initiation at King's Lake tomorrow night. Initiation, which was to have been held last Saturday, was postponed because of the weather.

PHI SIGS—ALPHA SIGS

Plenty of action was displayed between the Phi Sigs and the Alpha Sigs on Tuesday, when the two met for the second game of the tournament. The first half was slow and the Alpha Sigs seized the lead and held a margin of 10 to 7 when the whistle for rest was blown. At the start of the second half, Nygaard's kickoff was low and Barker returned the ball to the Alpha's 10-yard line. It was then first and ten for the Phi Sigs, and Veneziano went through tackle for a score. Mr. Pearey had to excuse several bad boys from the game.

Ken Turner brought his Ramblers from across the tracks to settle a dispute with Jack White's Mohawks. There was never a dull moment from start to finish. Riggins of the Ramblers proved to be a real threat, gaining continually on plunges through right tackle. Bosco Gammon, another big bully, kept getting the ball and running off in a corner all by himself and playing keep-away with Jimmie James.

The Ramblers opened up with their laterals and caught the Mohawks off-guard and made enough points to win the game, 18 to 15.

Girls' basketball practices will be held on Tuesday and Thursday noons and Wednesday nights from 7 to 9. All girls are urged to attend.

Plans are being made for a W. A. A. sleigh-riding party. The girls will meet at the Women's Faculty building, where the sleigh and horses will meet them. A ride will be taken through Florence and afterwards the girls are invited to the home of Phyllis Knudsen.

OMAHANS BEATEN BY NODAK BISONS

Strohbehn Proves Sparkplug
For University Five; Game
Ends With Score 38 to 28.

The Omaha University Cardinals were again defeated by the powerful North Dakota State Bisons at the Central High school gym last Monday evening, February 10, by a score of 38 to 28.

The victory over the Cardinals gave North Dakota State their eighth straight victory in as many starts. The University of North Dakota has the same record, and the two schools will meet at the end of the month to decide who will receive the crown.

The lanky boys from North Dakota led the game throughout, and specialized in tricky overhead and one-handed shots.

Earl Strohbehn, a reserve, proved to be the spark plug of the Cardinal attack, and his shiftiness and accurate passing caused the Bisons much concern. Strohbehn entered the game during the first half, and gave many of the varsity regulars a few lessons in how to handle the oval.

North Dakota State opened the game with five field goals before the Cardinals found the basket, and held an edge of 15 to 4 midway in the first half. Strohbehn then tallied, and Brown followed, but the Bisons then increased their count to 20. The half ended with the Cardinals on the small end of a 20 to 8 score.

Omaha played heads-up basketball the second half, but the Bisons were content to match goals with the Omaha lads. Johnk, Baade and Boldenow tallied for the Cardinals, and Reimers and Anderson followed up for the Bisons, making the score 28 to 17. Johnk tossed another field goal (his second straight), making the count 28 to 19. Strohbehn then came in with a very difficult side shot, and the score stood 28 to 21.

This was as close as the Red-birds came to catching the Bisons. Reimers led the scoring honors with eight field goals, while Johnk followed for the Cardinals with four.

last fall on a one-year contract, he at once became popular with everyone he came in contact with. Under Baker and the able guidance of Head Coach Sed Hartman, the Omaha University Cardinals easily took the Nebraska Intercollegiate Athletic Association football honors and were only scored upon once throughout the entire season by a Nebraska team.

Baker is coaching basketball for the first time this season. Faced with the complete lack of veteran material, he has built the spirit as well as the ability of the team to a point where they have lost only two games by large margins. After graduating from the University of Southern California in 1932, Baker became line coach for Iowa State Teachers College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The following year he was appointed head coach, and remained at that position for two years until he came to Omaha University as line coach. Baker's record at the Iowa State Teachers College was good, winning ten games and losing six in two seasons.

Johnny Baker would make no comment upon the possible Grinnell position.

"It's news to me," he declared.

Other possible candidates for the position are Ben Douglas, who made a sensational record at Maplewood (Mo.) high school; Len Winter, athletic director at Central College, Pella, Iowa; and Lloyd Martin, Sioux City high school coach, according to the Omaha Bee-News.

*By mild ripe
tobacco we mean just this —*

FIRST—ripened in the sunshine... and picked leaf by leaf from the right part of the stalk when fully ripe.

THEN—each day's picking cured
time and in the right way... no "splotching" or brittleness, but every leaf of good color and flavor.

FINALLY—bought in the open market... re-dried for storage... then packed in wooden hogsheads to age and mellow for two years or more until free from harshness and bitterness.

That's what we mean by mild, ripe tobacco. And that's the kind of tobacco we use to give Chesterfields their milder, better taste.
